Our Unique Approach to business success

Actor's skills are a fundamental ingredient for a vibrant, innovative and creative business

Performance on TV & Radio

Let us work practically with you to teach your team the key presentation and performance skills imperative to take confident control of today's challenging media.

Communication Skills

Transfer the methodology used in drama training to unlock and improve the potential of participants through the development of voice, speech, body language, interaction and teamwork.

Finding Your Voice

This voice workshop will encourage your team to find their natural voice and encourages a new and dynamic way of stepping into any role.

Put Yourself on Stage, but this Time it's Personal!

Let us work with your people on a one to one basis defining who they are, what they stand for and offer practical performance techniques to enable each person to present and perform in public with confidence and conviction.

The Confidence Edge

Give your team the confidence edge. We will work with your team for a full day or a half day to give them the performance, presentation and confidence skills that can make a difference in any workplace.

Building a Dynamic Team

Using tried and tested performance and acting skills, let us work with your team on building a strong, durable and dynamic workforce.

Leadership-Performance in Action

This dynamic one day workshop for leaders (or leaders in the making) will focus on defining the leadership path and working on practical performance strategies in action to follow this through.

Create Your Own Dynamic Performance Workshop

Let us work with you on designing a bespoke workshop that fulfills your specific needs.

“ Thank you for this opportunity to improve our whole being as a workforce - Brown Thomas ”
