

Our Post-Primary Schools Programme consists of specialised workshops tailored for young adults using drama, allowing them express themselves. The programme uses drama as a way of approaching work. We address issues that may be encountered in day to day lives or assist with the demands of the educational curriculum. Our workshops can be specifically tailored where you will find various ways in which we can approach the specific needs of your students.

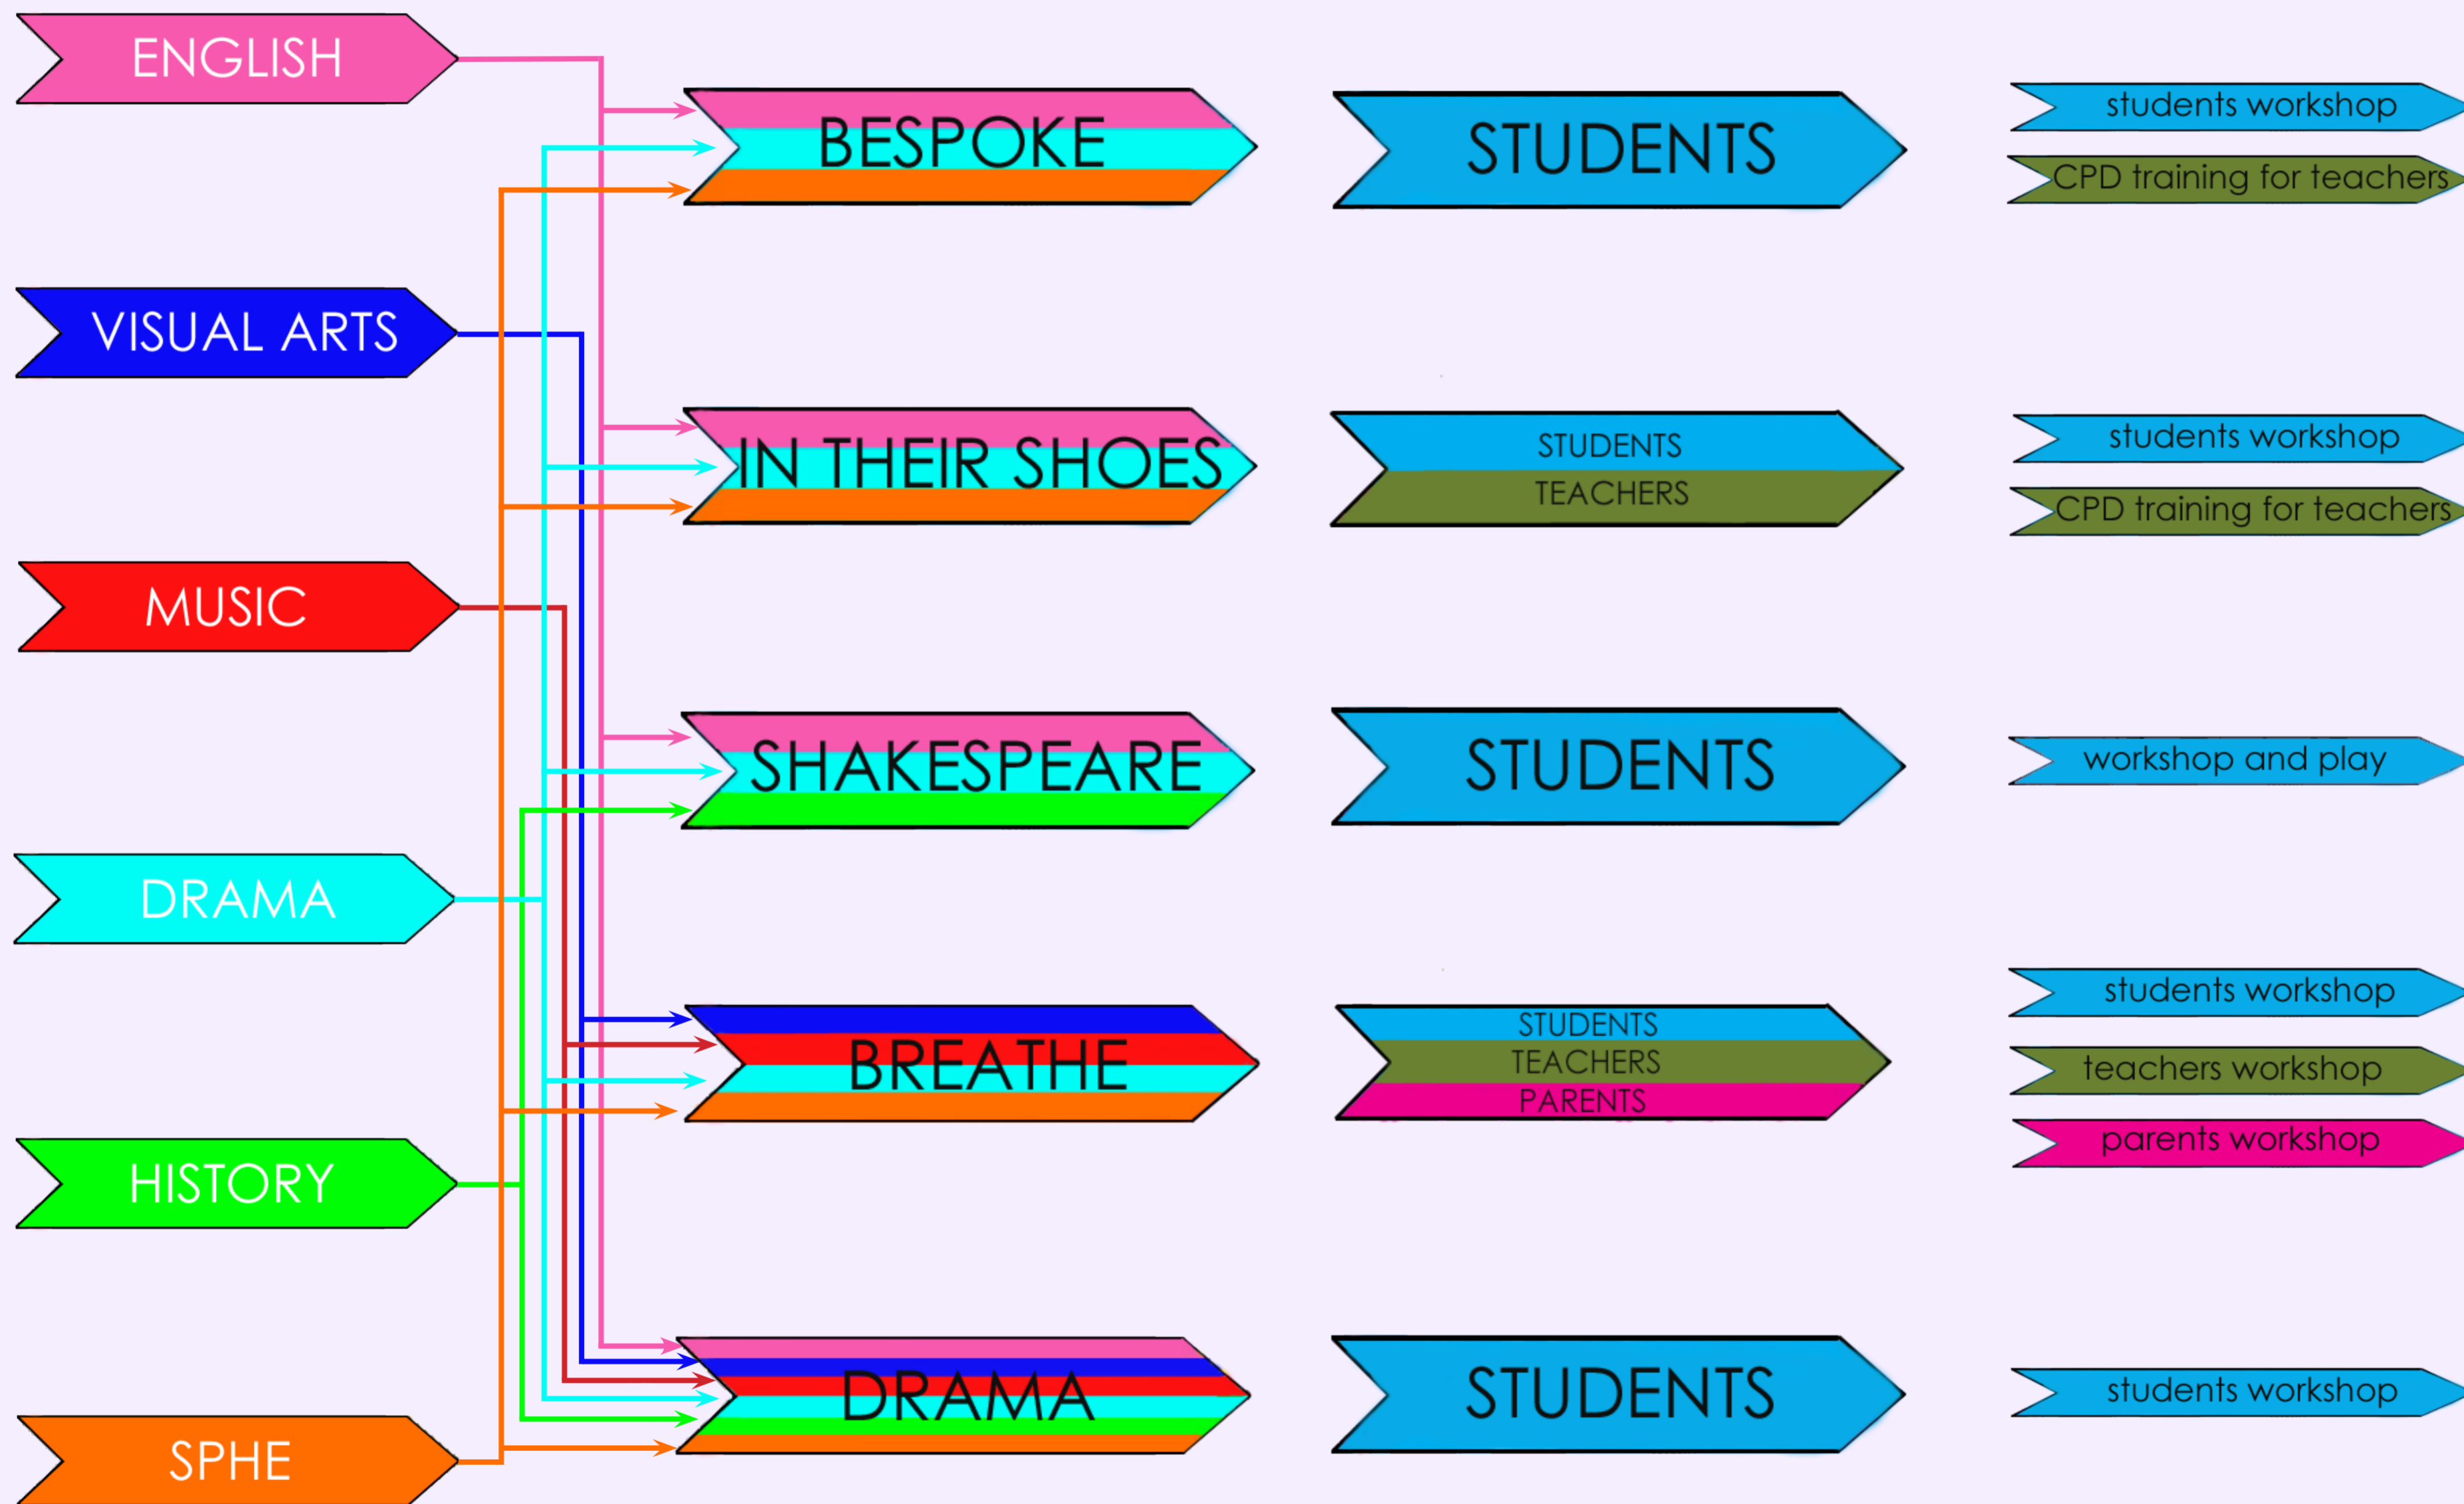

educate@gaietyschool.com

www.gaietyschool.com

01 6799277 / 1890258358

- Specialised workshops using drama to allow students to express themselves, ranging from combating social issues to preparing students for the future
- Explore methods to increase self-confidence and understand how best prepare for an interview
- Enhance team ethics and enable students to communicate with confidence
- Learn specialised techniques in a skills workshop; make a movie, musical theatre, acting for camera, playwriting or voice training

- Anti-bullying drama based workshop for teachers and students
- Summer courses available approved for EPV days
- Teachers will learn how active learning strategies can improve the classroom atmosphere
- Teachers will be able to use acquired knowledge towards the development of aspects of the individual, including creative, emotional, moral, aesthetic and social behaviours
- Students will contribute, get involved and share ideas, whilst using the creative side of their brain to problem solve and work through solutions
- Students will learn teamwork and discover how working together inspires a positive atmosphere

- Experience a full performance of a play covering either Leaving or Junior Cert syllabus play
- A post performance workshop addressing exam questions
- TY programme designed to engage students with Shakespeare's works and introduce them to Shakespeare for the Leaving Cert in a fun, creative & alternative manner

- Breathe is a programme developed to raise awareness around positive mental health and well-being
- Programme consists of three creative workshops for students, staff and parents/guardians
- Involvement in Breathe Programme will have a wide impact on school's communities
- More info on (www.justbreathe.ie)

- Expand their overall communication skills
- Be inspired to find confidence in themselves and their ideas
- Get a chance to try out new performance skills, that may help with school performances
- Social, personal and artistic development through the medium of drama

Legend

Students

Teachers

Parents