WELCOME!

I am delighted to present to you the Summer brochure 2017 for The Gaiety School of Acting – The National Theatre School of Ireland. As always, our focus is on delivering courses that instil confidence and creativity in each individual. The exceptional standard we pride ourselves on in our Full Time actor training is extended to all Part Time courses for adults and children throughout our three locations: Temple Bar, Malahide and Bray. This summer sees ever popular Adult Short Courses return: Acting for Beginners, Stand-Up Comedy, Acting for Camera and Musical Theatre. Or you can choose one of our weekend workshops such as Accent Masterclass, Stage Combat, The Confidence Edge or the brand new Stage Make-Up workshop.

We are especially excited to launch FILM+, our new film-making course for professional actors. This industry-focused, intensive course is a unique opportunity to write, create and act in, and be credited for your own film. This innovative 3 month course has been developed for actors to immerse themselves in the creative side of film, as well as training in the fundamentals of acting for screen.

The hugely successful Young Gaiety Summer Programme is designed to engage, challenge and creatively inspire children and young people. Our camps have been carefully developed for each age range and always led by engaging, experienced tutors. This summer, we have introduced new themed Drama, Movie-Making and Musical Theatre camps for ages 4 to 18 years. The themes are inspired by favourite books and movies like Roald Dahl, Star Wars, Grease and Vikings. We encourage kids and teenagers to these beloved films and books to take a running jump into their own imaginations. As always, I'll be looking forward to see what they come up with.

As The Gaiety School of Acting - The National Theatre School of Ireland celebrates its 31st year, I am prouder than ever of the learning that goes on at the school. Our dedicated staff, innovative courses and new training opportunities are vital to our continued success. Every day we are made prouder by graduates' achievements and seeing our past students gracing national and international TV, theatres and film.

If you would like to learn more about our school, graduates and all the courses we offer, please visit our website at gaietyschool.com, follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

CHILD PROTECTION STATEMENT

The care and safety of your children while they are at The Gaiety School of Acting - The National Theatre School of Ireland is our primary concern. To this end all of our staff receive compulsory training in the principles of best practice in child protection as laid down in the Children First Guidelines. It is our duty to ensure that the environment in the school is conducive to our mission to offer drama classes that encourage the development of both confidence and creativity in young people. Moreover, all of our tutors have undergone rigorous vetting procedures. To assist us in our efforts to protect your children, we ask you, as their guardians, to fill out a parental consent form which will be handed out on their first day or completed during booking.

We are looking for talented, dedicated, determined, imaginative, compassionate, and aesthetically aware individuals. We cater to people from all backgrounds and ages, who are prepared to commit to their craft, their colleagues, this school and themselves. You will engage in an intensive regime of physical, emotional and intellectual training delivered by an international staff of working theatre professionals who will guide you to take your place in the world as a professional actor.

"I would like to express my sincere thanks to the team at The Gaiety School of Acting following completion of the one year parttime Performance Year in Acting. It was an incredible journey from beginning to end. In particular thanks to our tutor Clare Maguire who guided us expertly throughout the year. Clare's energy, humour and generosity helped to make every minute of the course enjoyable."

Martin O'Reilly
PERFORMANCE YEAR 2015
